

I urge the FCC to eliminate the Morse code requirement from all classes of Amateur Radio licenses. Morse code now serves no operational or emergency requirement. The existing CW sub-bands should be retained, perhaps reduced in size.